LEVEL UP SURF COACHING

Ready to take your surfing to the next level? This trip is designed for intermediate surfers who want to break through plateaus and improve confidence, technique and style through a structured coaching process.

KEITH MARCANTUONI

With over 20 years of surfing and coaching experience, Keith has helped surfers of all levels break through plateaus and surf with more confidence, technique, and style. Beyond coaching, Keith is also a personal trainer, with years of experience helping surfers recover from injury and build the physical strength and conditioning that translates directly into better surfing.

YOUR PROGRESS STARTS BEFORE YOU LAND

Months before the trip, you gain access to Keith's mobile surf-training platform and follow a preparation program focused on surf-specific strength, mobility, endurance and injury prevention. The aim is to arrive physically ready to surf well every day.

COACHING IN THE WATER

Keith is in the lineup with you, working on positioning, timing, wave selection and decision-making in real time. Every wave is filmed by Naomi, Keith's coaching and life partner, so the details of each session can be reviewed.

PERSONAL FEEDBACK EVERY NIGHT

Each evening includes an in-depth video-analysis session with individual feedback. You finish the day knowing exactly what to work on in the next session.

PERFORM AT YOUR FULL POTENTIAL

Daily surf warm-ups plus stretch and recovery sessions help keep your body ready to perform and reduce the fatigue that often builds during a multi-day surf trip.

THE PROGRESS CONTINUES AFTER THE TRIP

You leave with your surf footage, a final detailed video analysis and personalized recommendations. Your analysis stays available through the Level Up mobile platform, where you can keep in contact with Keith for follow-up questions.

THE ROUTE

NORTH / SOUTH MALE

One of the Maldives most iconic surf zones-and one of the most efficient for a liveaboard coaching trip.

North / South Malé is home to some of the Maldives' most iconic surf breaks, offering a great mix of long rights and lefts over crystal-clear reef. From south to north, key spots include Jails, Honky's, Sultans, Ninjas, Cokes and Chickens, with conditions ranging from playful walls to fast, powerful sections. The main surf season runs from March to October, with spring and summer usually bringing the most consistent swell and conditions.

- More time surfing and less time moving between sessions.
- Surf a combination of right and left reef breaks during your trip
- Mariana can reposition around swell, wind, tide and the level of the group.
